The volume of international visitor's arrival has risen from 42,000 in 1980 to over 1.2 Million in 2015, which is a huge increase. This has been accompanied by an increase in the supply of tourist accommodation from 2,400 beds to 34,105 beds over the same period.

2.2 The services required include the development implementation of public relations campaigns to position Maldives as preferred tourist destination; to monitor and report the developments to the outbound market from these destinations; to report the developments in the tourism related regulations and to update MMPRC on promotional campaigns and other activities of potential competitors.

2.3 MMPRC reserves the right to, without limitation, without incurring any obligation or liability vis-à-vis any Bidder and without expressing any cause or reason thereof, at any time before the Bid Due Date and at its sole discretion, to amend ITB and/or the Bid Process including but not limited to the dates or other terms and conditions relating thereto, and/or suspend or cancel the Bid Process, and/or reject all of the Bids.

2.4 MMPRC reserves the right to verify any or all statements made by a Bidder in response to the ITB to establish to its satisfaction about the Bidder's capacity to perform.

2.5 A Bidder, including the respective members/ shareholders officers, employees, agents or its advisers shall not engage in collusive bidding, anti-competitive conduct or any other similar conduct, in any form or manner, with any other person or in relation to.

- 2.6 The Bidder shall not engage in corrupt or fraudulent practices in the preparation or lodgment of a Bid. The Bidder shall not have any commercial mutual benefits with other Bidder(s) submitting the Bids on the date of submission of the Bid.
- 2.7 This ITB does not bind MMPRC to a Bidder with respect to the subject matter of the ITB; and MMPRC shall not under any circumstances be responsible for any costs incurred by any Bidder, including the respective members/ shareholders officers, employees, agents and advisers of the Bidder in participating in the Bid Process.
- 2.8 The Bidder shall be responsible for all of the costs associated with the preparation of its Bid and its participation in the Bid Process. MMPRC will not be responsible or in any way liable for any costs, expenses and charges incurred by any Bidder in connection with the preparation and submission of its Bid or the Bid Process in any manner whatsoever, regardless of the conduct or outcome of the Bid Process including cancellation of the Bid Process by MMPRC.
- 2.9 Unless specifically stated otherwise in this ITB, all queries and communications in respect to the ITB or the Bid Process shall be addressed by any Bidder to MMPRC, by e-mail or in writing and shall be delivered in person, or by courier or by certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, at the address as set out hereunder, or such other address as may be informed by MMPRC from time to time;
- 2.10 Interested parties must submit an expression of interest along with a written statement of qualification within the proposal. Upon evaluation of all submittals, MMPRC may select various respondents to provide an oral presentation for further evaluation of a respondent's ability to assist MMPRC towards achieving the expected results of this solicitation as outlined in this RFP. However, MMPRC may select contractors based on written proposals alone.

APPENDIX 2
Scope of Work and Deliverables

1. Scope of Work

- 1.1 Monthly market report (to be submitted before the end of the first week of every month). The report format should consist of two parts,
- i. Market report: (consisting of market research/intelligence information and current economic and market trends as well as competitor activity analysis) and
 - ii. Activities undertaken during the month: Details of meetings held with stakeholders (contact name, number and brief summary of the meetings as well as trade-related activities undertaken by the Agency on behalf of MMPRC, media clippings).
- 1.2 Coordinate and execute 1-2 familiarisation trip(s) (media / bloggers / travel trade)
- 1.3 Production & distribution of bi-monthly Newsletter distributed to media and tourism sector including major tour operators.
- 1.4 Managing and updating a media and tour operator database for MMPRC. Database should be shared with MMPRC at a mutually agreed date at the beginning of the contract and updated and shared every six months.
- 1.5 Submit a monthly summary of media monitoring. Media monitoring report should identify PR generated articles (through familiarisation trips and other means) and other clippings of the destination, their reach and value. Monitoring report should give an analysis of general topics of interest about the destination in the market, identify positive vs. negative articles and include professional advice on recommended actions to diffuse negative impact to the destination that may arise.
- 1.6 Attend and represent Maldives in exhibitions/fairs in the market as well as assist MMPRC to arrange meetings and interviews during travel trade fairs with travel professionals (tour ops/travel agents, airlines, hotel representatives, etc.) + follow-up on major contacts for brochure requests, promotional material, etc. (No additional management costs should be charged to MMPRC. In case if the event is held in a city other than the city where agency office is located then MMPRC will bear the cost for food, lodging and transport. This cost has to be pre-approved by MMPRC).
- 1.7 Organise and manage 1 Road show during the contract period. No additional management costs should be charged to MMPRC. In case if the event is held in a city other than the city where agency office is located then MMPRC will bear the cost for food, lodging and transport. This cost has to be pre-approved by MMPRC. Suggestions and recommendations of cities and dates to be pre-approved by MMPRC in advance. All the costs related to hosting the Road show will be borne by MMPRC.
- 1.8 Actively seek out opportunities in the market for promoting Maldives and advise MMPRC. Particular emphasis should be given to identifying traditional PR opportunities to generate positive PR for the destination through non-paid collaborations/barter arrangements and joint campaigns. At least two such high impact campaigns should be carried out throughout the year.
- 1.9 Liaise with tour operators and airlines to develop partnership opportunities and build relationships and handle trade inquiries - an effective information service for the travel trade should be established. The Agency should be able to answer questions and fulfil inquiries on all Maldives aspects. Trade inquiries will be fulfilled by distribution of fact sheets, product news/information, photos and slides. Actively seek out and propose at least two opportunities with Airlines for non-paid joint collaborations (e.g.: social media updates/campaigns, familiarisation trip support in return for exposure).

1.10 Assist MMPRC with The Agency know how to establish and maintain close contact to all sectors of the travel trade industry such as tour operators, travel agencies, airlines, incentive and congress organisers, major commercial accounts and other potential organisations.

1.11 Maintain media relations to generate coverage of the Maldives.

1.12 Suggest most appropriate media to be selected for destination promotion and purchase media slots on behalf of MMPRC (where advised) for Agent rates.

1.13 Formulate and execute marketing campaign for Maldives for a 1-year period (as advised and approved by MMPRC). Refer to clause 4.8.9. Details should be submitted within 30 days of signing the contract.

1.14 Serve as a liaison office in Australia between MMPRC/local tourism related companies and AUSTRALIAN tour operators. Type of inquiries received should be specified in the report.

1.15 Assignment of dedicated telephone line for “Maldives” PR and travel trade inquiries. All communications should be via email address created within the visit Maldives domain provided by MMPRC.

1.16 Organise in-house presentations with the most important tour operators (2 per year) and incentive houses to increase Maldives awareness and communicate the latest news with presentations (if available). These meetings are to be organised at the tour operator offices during lunch time. This allows to contact all key personnel of the agency in one session (average of 10/20 people)

1.17 Sales calls & meetings with tour operators featuring the Maldives and potential tour operators to encourage them to include the destination in their brochure

1.18 Sales calls & meetings with scheduled airlines and charter companies servicing the Maldives to develop partnership opportunities

1.19 Postage of brochures to travel trade contacts (tour ops, travel agents, airlines, etc.)

1.20 Conduct a bi-annual review to identify the number of tour operators featuring the Maldives in their brochure. This comprehensive study should feature the tour operators/product managers’ full contact name and address, the content of the packages (number of room nights, resort category, prices, etc.), the airlines and resorts featured.

1.21 PR firm should arrange an annual media event. The purpose of this event is to provide news about the destination and to maintain a close relationship with media. In case of any extra cost it has to be discussed and pre-approved by MMPRC.

1.22 To promote the Maldives in all social media platforms of the agency without any extra cost. In addition, the appointed agency is to monitor and maintain social media platforms of MMPRC which are not in English language in consultation with MMPRC.

1.23 Measuring success: Recommend and develop a “measure of success” for the annual PR and Trade plan.

1.24 Annual meeting of all PR representatives with MMPRC in the Maldives on a set date by MMPRC or as a web conference. The objective of the meeting would be for all PR representatives of the destination to get to know each other and to;

- i. Understand MMPRC’s overall destination marketing directive,
- ii. Educate about the latest product information and new developments in the destination,
- iii. Share information about the individual market situations,
- iv. How to streamline work in spreading consistent PR message across the markets of focus
- v. Discuss on how to effectively address possible challenges in implementing most effective PR and trade strategy for the destination and
- vi. How to measure the return on investment
- vii. Present current issues and suggestion on how it can be solved

3.1 Respective PR Agency should present an overview of the respective market with latest information and suggested plan for Maldives together with justification as to why particular activities were chosen as well as suggestions on how to effectively measure ROI of each activity and current issues in the market with suggestions on how it can be solved.

3.2 If the event is held in Maldives all the cost related to the Annual PR meeting will be borne by MMPRC. This includes airfare, full board accommodation, transport and all other relevant logistics.

3.3 If MMPRC decides to conduct the Annual Meeting as a Web Conference, details and agenda of the event will be sent to the PR representatives prior to the event.

2. Scope of work during a Crisis

The agency should pro-actively monitor and be the first to alert MMPRC on possible crisis situation which result in negative publicity to the destination. Timely action, professional advice on minimising the impact, formulation of action plan and implementation as advised by MMPRC should be included in crisis management.

General crisis management should include daily media monitoring and proactive timely reporting in cases of concern within the current scope and retainer fee. In the event of a major incident the implementation of plan and extensive media monitoring work, reporting, communication with stakeholders, press formulation and distribution, etc can be invoiced separately with prior written approval from MMPRC.
