

Families discover springtime fun at Niyama Private Islands Maldives!

Niyama Private Islands Maldives has lined up myriad delightful activities for festive fun this Easter. The twin islands, Chill and Play, offer experiences to fulfil every mood and desire, from relaxing spa encounters to exhilarating wave surfing and more, providing the perfect playground for families to create cherished holiday memories.

When it comes to kids' clubs, Niyama remains unrivalled with its world-class facilities and services. Throughout the Easter holidays, Niyama has organised dedicated activities for kids, including an Easter Party, suitable for children of all ages. The whole family can also join in an Easter Run around Nature's Playground and Easter Egg Hunt to celebrate the festive season.

This season, the sea conditions will also be perfect for youngsters to try their hand at beginner surf lessons at the iconic Vodi Point located in front of Surf Shack, as well as to enjoy a starlit Full Moon Party on Easter Friday. Families can also enjoy the warmth of the evening with an outdoor movie night while indulging in delicious snacks under the stars.

Guests will feel spoiled for choice with endless magical gastronomical experiences awaiting them. From specialty menus to Easter buffets, every taste bud will be tempted and tickled. Each location will feature a unique experience – an Easter feast six metres under the sea at Subsix or a Michelin-starred dinner six metres above at Edge. There is also a sake dinner in the jungle canopy of Nest and butcher's dinner at Tribal; Maldives only Afro Latin restaurant.

The choices of abode are limitless, each one being synonymous with luxury. Offerings include private villas and pavilions, overwater spa suites opening up to the ocean, garden hideaways floating on water, and more. Families can continue to enjoy some R&R at Drift at Niyama, which is ready to relax, soothe, and invigorate the entire family this Easter. Exclusive spa sessions have been created for the whole family, a perfect way to introduce the younger family members to healthy wellness experiences. Drift Spa has also curated special Family Spa-arty packages, where the children enjoy a 30-minute massage followed by a choice of activities with Drift's expert staff, while parents indulge in some quiet adult time.

For a little alone time to rejuvenate, parents can explore alternative healing, holistic beauty treatments and non-surgical facelifts with the world-renowned visiting Masters of Wellness experts, Dr. David Alessi and Dr. Paulo Fernandes. Or, they can re-energise from a selection of exclusive Beverly Hills IV vitamin infusions or revitalise their complexion with an Intraceuticals oxygen-based facial.
